Suspicious Packages & Envelopes

1 What to Do If You Find a

Suspicious Package or Envelope

- a. Never touch any package that is suspicious!
Do not attempt to touch, move, or open, as it could explode or spread.
- b. Isolate the suspicious package by evacuating the room and locking the door, if possible.
- c. If the suspicious package is discovered while handling, avoid dropping, throwing, or any other abrupt shock movement. This can cause detonation of certain devices. Gently set the package down.
- d. Call University Police immediately from a safe location. Do not use a radio or cell phone within 100 feet of the object.
- e. Describe what the package looks like and its location.
- f. Evacuate others in the area by following established evacuation procedures.
Consider persons with disabilities who may need assistance evacuating.
- g. If you have had direct skin contact with the package, wash hands, arms, etc. with soap and rinse with a plentiful quantity of water for 15 minutes
- h. Account for any missing person; always notify University Police of any missing person when evacuating an area.
- i. Always follow precautionary directions given by University officials.
